NUMB. 3614

WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 26. 1743.

Rome, October 12.

ON the 6th of this Month the Arch-Confraternity of St. John the Baptiſt went in Proceſſion to the new Priſon, where, in Conſequence of their Privilege, they granted Life and Liberty to a Priſoner under Sentence of Death, conducted him inſtantly to their Church, and when he had there returned Thanks to God and St. John, they gave him a good Dinner, and cloathed him from Head to Foot, and ſent him home to his Friends. Here has lately appeared an Edict, which not only confirms that of the 28th of July, by which all Veſſels, Perſons, and Merchandizes coming from the Levant, are obliged to perform a Quarantine of 40 Days; but alſo all Intercourſe whatſoever with the Iſlands of Cefalonia and Santa Maura are to be prohibited, on account of a French Veſſel having lately landed in one of thoſe Iſlands a Perſon who came from Meſſina, who died ſoon after of the Plague, which hath ſpread itſelf in both Iſlands.

Naples, October 8. The Court continues ſtill at Portici, where the Queen, who was lately much out of Order, is now perfectly recovered. We are every Day taking freſh Meaſures for leſſening the Number of Malecontents, by which, it is thought, we only increaſe a more dangerous Sort of People, which are State Hypocrites. All the Troops of the Kingdom are encamped at preſent on the Frontiers of the Eccleſiaſtical State, but with what View is an impenetrable Secret, and will remain ſo till we know what becomes of the Infant Don Philip's Expedition, upon which our Neutrality depends. Notwithſtanding our late Advices from Calabria gave us Hopes that the Plague was entirely ceaſed, yet Letters from thence this Day inform us, that ſome People have died of it again lately; ſo that all our Precautions are continued as ſtrictly as ever.

Modena, October 12. This Morning, to our great Surprize, an Edict was publiſhed, forbidding all Communication with the Eccleſiaſtical State, on very ſevere Penalties. The Auſtrian Troops do not ſeem inclined to fight the Spaniards at preſent, but are making ſuch Diſpoſitions, as plainly ſhew their Intention to prevent their running away; and Prince Lobkowitz has poſted his Troops ſo judiciouſly, that the Spaniards muſt be obliged quickly to attack him, unleſs they can live without Victuals, and teach their Horſes to follow their Example. Since his Highneſs has had the Command, he has hanged up ſo many of the Miquelets, that how much ſoever they may be Thieves in their Hearts, they are obliged to keep their Hands honeſt; nor is the Prince barely content with hanging them, but obliges their Companions to make good, out of their Pay, whatever they take from the People.

Schaffhauſen in Switzerland, October 13. We learn, that throughout all the Country, from Mulhauſen to Beſſort, there reigns a prodigious Mortality among the Cattle. This the Farriers take to be a kind of Glanders, but the Phyſicians are of Opinion that it is a Murrain, which occaſions a great Conſternation; and Orders have been immediately given for burning all the Cattle that die of it, and throwing their Aſhes into a deep Pit.

Vienna, October 19. The Name-Day of our Sovereign, which was the 15th, was celebrated with prodigious Magnificence. The Grand Duke cauſed the Baſtion oppoſite to the Palace to be illuminated in the grandeſt manner poſſible. It repreſented a Triumphal Structure 70 Paces high, and 200 in breadth; it conſiſted of Arches, Columns, Baluſtrades, and diſtant Proſpects, and was adorned with at leaſt 5000 Lamps; below this Machine there was a Garden repreſented, which was ſpangled with 5000 Lamps more; on each Side of that were Obeliſks with Pedeſtals, upon which were the Queen's Name and Arms; theſe formed a Semicircle about 800 Feet in Diameter, which made a moſt glorious Shew. There was in all 16,000 Lamps employed. All the Court were in the Spaniſh Hall to ſee the Illumination; which Hall being exactly over-againſt the Baſtion, was alſo adorned, and illuminated in a moſt ſplendid manner. We begin to talk here of a general Peace; and, in the mean time, Prince Charles's Army are to take Quarters in Bavaria, and the Upper Palatinate. We continue raiſing Recruits with ſuch incredible Succeſs, that it is thought moſt of our Regiments will be complete by that time they go into Winter Quarters. Our laſt Letters from Turin ſay, that ſince the late Action the King of Sardinia had above 1200 Spaniſh Deſerters in his Camp. Our laſt Advices from Prince Lobkowitz aſſure us, that if the Reinforcements arrive in time, there is the greateſt Probability that an End may be put to the War in Italy, notwithſtanding it is ſo far advanced.

Extract from a Private Letter.

Paris, October 30. 'It is ſo ſeldom that one has an 'Opportunity of writing to you ſafely, that you muſt 'be content with having Advices from me of an older 'Date than I could wiſh. It is very certain, that our 'Miniſtry have, in a great Meaſure, recovered their 'Spirits, and that they are making all poſſible Diſpoſi'tions for carrying on the War. According to the laſt 'Scheme of Augmentation, which I have actually ſeen, 'as it was ſettled in a Council of War, the King will 'have on foot, by the 21ſt of March next, 390,000 'Regular Troops, excluſive of Independent Companies 'and Invalids, and of three German Regiments, each of 'two Battalions, which are now raiſing for his Service; 'but what ſeems to be more extraordinary, it is reſolv'd 'to have a great Fleet alſo at Sea next Summer; and, in 'purſuance of this Reſolution, there was, on the 10th 'of this Month, a grand Promotion of Naval Officers, 'tho' it is not yet declared.

'In the Council of War before-mentioned, it was re'ſolved, that 60 Battalions, and 80 Squadrons, ſhould 'remain in Alſace, and that a Reinforcement of 7000 'Men ſhou'd be ſent into Dauphine. The News of the 'Infant Don Philip's Repulſe, has made a great Impreſſion 'here, and ſeems to have irritated this Court more than 'ever againſt that of Sardinia. According to a Liſt 'handed about, there have been five Field-Officers, 14 'Captains, as many Lieutenants, and about 540 Private 'Men killed and wounded of our Troops; which is 'pretty extraordinary, ſince there were not above 4000 'that actually engaged. The Spaniſh Ambaſſador has pre'ſented a very ſtrong Memorial here, in relation to the 'Treaty concluded by his Sardinian Majeſty with the 'Queen of Hungary; in which, it is ſaid, he has gone 'ſo far as to aſſert, that if ſpeedy Satisfaction be not 'given to his Court, that they ſhall be better ſupported 'for the future than they have hitherto been, they ſhall 'be obliged to conclude a Peace immediately, without 'any Regard to the Concerns of his moſt Chriſtian Ma'jeſty; which they have it in their Power to do, ſince 'they have been already offered a conſiderable Territory 'for Don Philip, as an Equivalent for the Duchy of 'Savoy.

'We are ſtill under great Difficulties about raiſing 'Money; for tho' many fair Projects have been propoſed, 'yet few or none of them have been found practicable, 'except Taxing the Fortunes of People in eaſy Circum'ſtances; which is alſo expoſed to ſome Obſtacles, but 'the Cardinal thinks it very poſſible to remove them. 'There has been lately ſome Talk of a Scheme for raiſing 'Money in all the great Cities of France, by permitting 'them to levy their own Taxes; which, it is ſaid, they 'can do much cheaper than they are levied under the 'preſent Management. And, beſides theſe Methods, it 'is whiſpered, that a very large Sum will be demanded 'of the General Farmers, in Conſideration of an Edict 'of Indemnity, by which all Frauds, or Miſtakes, com'mitted in their reſpective Offices, will be buried in 'Oblivion.

'The Marquis de la Chetardie ſet out on the 15th for 'Petersbourg, well furniſhed with Inſtructions. He is 'to offer his Majeſty's Guaranty of the Ruſſian Succeſſion, 'a Plan for compromiſing the Diſputes with Denmark, 'and another for a perpetual Alliance for ſecuring the 'Peace of the North. Prince Cantimir, the Czarina's 'Ambaſſador here, had, on the 22d, a particular Audi'ence, in relation to Matters which are ſaid to be of the 'laſt Importance. Our Northern Negociations have 'already coſt immenſe Sums of Money; and, from the 'Remittances lately made, are like to coſt us as much 'more; eſpecially if it be true, that the Marquis de la 'Chetardie is to attempt reſtoring our Intereſt in Swe'den, that is, at preſent, in a great Meaſure loſt.

'In the Midſt of all theſe Preparations for maintaining 'the War, we can very eaſily diſcern, that a ſilent Ne'gociation is carrying on, in order to bring about a 'general Peace; and we more than ſuſpect, that the 'Marquis de Chavigny is charged with this important 'Commiſſion, of which I ſhall write you more particu'larly in my next; which you will certainly receive 'next Week, by the ſame Canal that you have this. 'I am, &c.'

For the immediate Cure of Barrenness in Women, tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cauſe ſoever,

And alſo of

Impotency in Men, however occaſion'd, or of no ſo long Standing,

The Famous and Ineſtimable

PROLIFICK ELIXIR,

The higheſt, richeſt and moſt powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended,

BEING the only true and infallible Cure for Barrenness in Women and Impotency in Men in the Univerſe, and which it at once accompliſhes without the leaſt Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thouſands have experienced, and that by promoting the chearful Curricle of the Blood and Juices, raiſing all the Fluids from their languid, depreſſed State, to one more florid and ſparkling, opening all Obſtructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreaſing the Animal Spirits, reſtoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently repleniſhing the criſpy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moiſture, and thereby invigorating it to ſuch a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by thoſe who have experienced how exceedingly and ſenſibly it renovates, recruits, and powerfully ſtrengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inforces a bright, lively Diſpoſition, baniſhes Melancholy, and inſpires Mirth and Gladneſs of Heart beyond Expreſſion. A bundance of Ladies, who for ſeveral Years were deemed irrably Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and become Fruitful; and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by faſt living, or otherwiſe, had render'd themſelves incapable of Procreation, have ſoon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, inſomuch, that very many illuſtrious Families, who for want of Children, were almoſt inconſolable, are now bleſt with happy Iſſue, and are (under Providence) indebted to the Great Medicine for their Heirs. It rectifies all Diſorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digeſtion, and in all Weakneſs of Body, or Decay of Conſtitution of any Kind, is a moſt infallible Reſtorative, and even keeps back the Effects of Old Age itſelf. It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleaſant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Two Blue Poſts in Haydon-Yard in the Minories, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.

The GREAT RESTORATIVE,

Being a pleaſant Compound Medicament, Chymically prepar'd of the choiceſt Anti-Hyſtericks in the whole Art of Chymiſtry,

WHICH ſpeedily and infallibly cures all HYSTERICK DISEASES, whether Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, or Vapours in Women, however circumſtanc'd, or to what Degree ſoever advanc'd, or of ever ſo long ſtanding, ſo as never to return again.

This Medicine having cured Thouſands of Men and Women of Melancholy and Vapours, may be depended on for a perfect Cure; it ſtrikes immediately at the firſt Cauſe of this Diſtemper, and entirely deſtroys it Root and Branch, rectifies the vitiated Ferment in the Stomach, which is generally the firſt and chief Cauſe, and thereby cures Indigeſtion, purifies the Blood and Spirit, ſtrengthens the Brain and Nerves, clears the whole Frame, ſtops Vomiting, clears the Head from confus'd Thoughts, removes Fear or Sadneſs, diſturb'd Sleep, Twitchings of the Arms or Legs, cures Palpitation, or Trembling of the Heart; and indeed all other the many and various Symptoms that attend this grievous Diſtemper; for, take away the Cauſe, and the Effect will ceaſe.

It is ſold for 4 s. 6 d. the Bottle, at Mr. Sandwell's Toyſhop at the Sign of the Griffin, the Corner of Buckler's Bury in the Poultry and no where elſe. Where it has been ſold upwards of 20 Years, with the greateſt Succeſs and Benefit to the Public, notwithſtanding the many Counterfeits ſince its firſt Publication.

LONDON: Printed for M. Cooper, at the Globe in Pater-Noſter-Row.
